

CI DBS

We will be continuing our cooking club, new starters to the club an also follow We will be continuing our cooking club, new starters to the club in harning lots of goodies. They can also follow methods in Can come Join us in baking lots of goodies. They can also follow the kitchen as well as learning about allergens and fond safety. on with our existing mini chers in learning lots or tun methods and food safety.

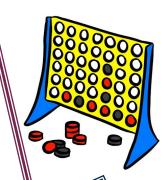

Tuesday - Young Builders Creative Construction Competition Come and be creative and build something con-Come and we creative and wind sometimy con-Truchve! will you build the shower? Each week the fastest car or the tallest tower? Winner Will be announced at the end of club, so pring your innovative mind and get building!!

Wednesday Young Gamers

Let's play games, board games, card games and snap games. Learn to play new games and practice the old games. Get practising in time for Christmas to be the games champion in your household.

Friday night at the movies

Come and watch a film on Friday. You will be served pizza or hot dogs with a hot chocolate. What a fun way to end your hard week of

Come and take part in Well-being club! This half term we are going to be thinking about how we can stay healthy in mind and body. Each week we will try out different experiences linked to the Five Ways to Well-Being. Come and make new friends: play games, try some Noga, do some photography, help your community of the property of the property and learn some new skills.

